Canvassing Board at Santa Fe will canvass all election returns including county officers, one Poll Book properly certified must be sent by precinct election Judges direct to Territorial Secretary at Santa Fe, the other put in sealed ballot box and sent to Probate Clerk, but box must not be opened by County officials. Notify chairman of both political parties and have them assist you in getting these instructions to each precinct.

Nathan Jaffa,
Secretary of New Mexico.
The Board was advised by Nathan Jaffa Secretary of New Mexico, to order the County Clerk to send the Ballot Box which might be in question, addressed to Nathan Jaffa Secretary of New Mexico, and the Clerk is hereby ordered to send said Box by Express as early as possible and it is so ordered.

Now being no more business the Board ordered to be adjourned until the next regular term.

Hick's For 1912

Before the great Drouth of 1901, the Hicks Almanac gave timely warning. For over two years prior to 1911, the Hicks Almanac again sounded a warning of drouth danger. And so for forty years this same friend of all the people has steadfastly refused the offers of speculators and continued to warn the public of the coming dangers of storm and weather. As they should have done, the people have obly stood by Professor Hicks, their faithful public servant, who has grown old in their service. Send only one dollar to Word and Works Publishing Company, 3401 Franklin Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri, and get his Magazine and Almanac both for one year. The Almanac alone, a fine book of 150 pages, is only 35c by mail. Let everybody respond and receive the warnings of our National Seer for the coming year.

Juan Sanchez was up from Duran yesterday to take his son, Juan, home with him for the holidays this week. Juanito has been attending school here.

Reins in Safe Hands

The victory at the polls last Tuesday brings equal credit to the democracy and the progressive element of the Republican party. In fact, as we suggested last week, it was not so much a political contest in the state as an attempt on the part of the people irrespective of party, who had the welfare of the new state at heart, to place the reins of government in safe hands, and "let the people rule." There has been a general coalition of all the elements opposed to the rule of the "Old Guard," in the work of house-cleaning. It was a glorious victory and each man and each element that assisted in the work deserves special credit and the thanks of generations to come. It is a victory of which all may well feel proud. While the regular Democratic leaders have fought a noble fight they could scarcely have won the victory without the aid of the many staunch "Progressive" Republicans who took up the battle cry for a "Greater New Mexico," and led by such gallants as Gov. Hagerman, Gov. Otero, Geo. H. Pritchard, R. H. Hanna and others, helped to turn the tide of battle to the people's cause. All honor to the united hosts who fought the good fight. The victory will go down in bold letters in the history of New Mexico.—Tucumcari Sun.

Ex governor Curry passed through on yesterday noon's north bound train, en route to Santa Fe. Mr. Curry is as sure he is elected as all the rest of the candidates and only the final canvass at Santa Fe on the 27th will tell the tale.

The family of Manuel Mora has gone to Chilili to attend the Fiesta, which commences there today.

LOCALS

Have you secured your turkey for Thanksgiving yet?

James Sturm, wife and daughter, Mrs. S. T. Cummings, came in yesterday noon from Tampico, Illinois, to make proof on the latter's claim south of town.

Mrs. Mary Ellis left last night for Dallas, Texas, where she will visit her son and family. She expects her son, Joe, to accompany her on her return in about a month.

Born on Sunday morning to Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Douglas about nine miles west of Estancia, a eight and a half pound boy. Mother and baby ara reported as doing well.

A couple of the ladies of the town have taken the pledge of celibacy. Some of the boys are wondering if they will keep it. Johnny is wearing a mighty long face, to say the least.

E. E. Peden, master mechanic in the local shops, left last night for Chicago, where he will join General Manager Coomer, and to gether they will secure additional rolling stock for the Central.

Willie Dow of Tajique was down yesterday securing supplies for his store. His children, Hebe and Gerald, returned home with him to spend the rest of the week at home, there being no school.

The teachers of the public schools will leave this noon for Santa Fe to attend the meetings of the New Mexico Teachers Association. There will be no school until next Monday on account of the absence of the teachers.

Postmaster in Trouble

Santa Fe, N. M., Nov 12—Ulrick O. Seber, postmaster, at McIntosh, Torrance county, has been arrested, charged with the embezzlement of $350 of post office funds. The discovery that Postmaster Seber was short in his accounts was made two weeks ago by a postal inspector, following a check up of the McIntosh postoffice.—Albuquerque Journal.

Postmaster Soper has many friends here who will be very slow in believing that anything as serious as the above could be the truth. We await the outcome believing that nothing more serious than an error has occurred which Mr. Soper can and will correct.

Housecleaning Coming

The standpat Republicans forced the nomination of Bursum over the protest of the better element of the Republican party and they have reaped their reward for so doing in the crushing defeat they experienced on the 7th. It is not expected that they will profit by this experience but the house cleaning that Mr. McDonald and Judge McGill will inaugurate immediately on their induction into office will be an eye opener to the public at large and will tend to prove that the Democrats were right when they asserted that this was not a political fight so much as a fight on the part of certain politicians to retain their liberty. Watch McDonald.—Roosevelt County Herald.

Juan de Dios Sanchez left for his home at Duran yesterday after having attended the meeting of the Board of County Commissioners here.
